

Personnel Separation

Every contractor must complete the employee separation checklist immediately upon removal of an employee from the contract and return the form to the project officer. This is required so that NCI can quickly remove the contractor's access to NCI IT systems.

The personnel separation checklist can be found here.