Init6bes20 - Canada Infoway Clinical Concept Representation (blank software requirement statement)

Software Requirement Statement - Init6bes20 - Canada Infoway Clinical Concept Representation

Note to Business Analysts

If you work on a use case for this requirement, please put yourself on watch of this page, so that you will be automatically notified of any updates to this requirement.

(MMDDVYYY)     Image: Ima	Item	Information /Response
a urique identifier eque identifier eque identifier is different statement in motors list in the sease is initialiss-requirement numbers list in the sease is initialiss-requirement numbers is integrated in the sease is initialises and provide its and provide its initialises and provide its and and provide its		—
Be sure to include these 3 elements in your narrative summary: as unambiguously as possible, describe       Image: State S	a unique identifier e.g <semconops initiative="">.<analysts initials=""><requirement number=""> nit1dbw1</requirement></analysts></semconops>	_
In case a second analysts makes a major revision to the Requirement Statement (above), enter it here along with second analysts full name and date. Priority: (choose must, should)	Be sure to include these 3 elements in your narrative summary: as unambiguously as possible, describe (1) who (List of Actors) is interacting with the system, what the (2) business goal is and	_
Analysts Name (linked to their Email address):        Originator/Customer's Name: Originator of the requirement, if submitter is different from originator        Originator/Customer's Company: Company Name        Stakeholder Community: Enter appropriate category of primary, direct stakeholder(s):        • Software and Application designers and architects     Software and Application engineers and developers       • Software and Application engineers and developers        • Software and Application engineers and developers        • Software and Application engineers and developers        • Software and Application engineers and developers        • Software and Application engineers and developers        • Software and Application engineers and developers        • Software and Application engineers and developers        • Software and metadata managers        • Data and metadata managers        • Data and metadata managers        • Clincians        • Patients        • Study participantisBroader Stakeholders:        • CDC, ONC) (see SemConOps Stakeholders description)        Requirement Type (required)        Analyst's assessment of the most appropriate category/type of requirement:        • Nonfunctional: Fromadamental or essential to the	n case a second analyst makes a major revision to the Requirement Statement (above),
Originator/Customer's Name:       -         Originator of the requirement, if submitter is different from originator       -         Originator/Customer's Company:       -         Company Name       -         Stakeholder Community:       -         Enter appropriate category of primary, direct stakeholder(s):       -         * Software and Application designers and architects       * Software and Application engineers and developers         Scientific and metical researchers       •         Medical research protocol designers       -         Data and metadata managers       •         Clinicians       •         Patients       •         Study participantsBroader Stakeholders:       •         • Calloider Community WS, NIH projects, related commercial COTS vendors, Project teams (i.e. caEHR, NHIN), Standards Development Organizations (i.e. HL7, CDISC), International Collaborators (i.e. NCRI, cancerGnd, China), Government and regulatory bodies (i.e. FDA, CDC, ONC) (see SemConOps Stakeholders description)         Requirement Type (required)          Analysits assessment of the most appropriate category/type of requirement:       •         • Nonfunctional: representies the functions must have such as performance, usability, training or documentation       •         • Project constraint: schedule or budget constraints       •         • Dasign constraint: schedule or budget	Priority: (choose must, should)
Originator of the requirement, if submitter is different from originator       —         Originator/Customer's Company: Company Name       —         Stakeholder Community: Enter appropriate category of primary, direct stakeholder(s):       —         • Software and Application designers and architects       • Software and Application engineers and developers         • Software and Application engineers and developers       • Software and Application engineers and developers         • Software and Application engineers and developers       • Software and Application engineers and developers         • Data and metical researchers       • Medical researchers         • Medical researchers       • Callicians         • Patients       • Study participantsBroader Stakeholders:         • CaBIG® Community WS, NIH projects, related commercial COTS vendors, Project teams (i.e. caEHR, NHIN), Standards Development Organizations (i.e. HL7, CDISC), International Collaborators (i.e. NCRI, cancerGrid, China), Government and regulatory bodies (i.e. FDA, CDC, ONC) (see SemConOps Stakeholders description)       —         Requirement Type (required)       Analyst's assessment of the most appropriate category/type of requirement:       —         • Functional: Fundamental or essential to the product - describes what the product has to do or what processing is needed       •       Nonfunctional: properties the functions must have such as performance, usability, training or documentation       •       =         • Project toristrait: impose restrictions on how	Analysts Name (linked to their Email address):
Company Name		_
Enter appropriate category of primary, direct stakeholder(s): <ul> <li>Software and Application engineers and architects</li> <li>Software and Application engineers and developers</li> <li>Software and Application designers</li> <li>Data and metadata managers</li> <li>Clinicians</li> <li>Patients</li> <li>CaBIG® Community WS, NIH projects, related commercial COTS vendors, Project teams (i.e. caEHR, NHIN), Standards Development Organizations (i.e. FDA, CDC, ONC) (see SemConOps Stakeholders description)</li> </ul> <li>Requirement Type (required)         <ul> <li>Analyst's assessment of the most appropriate category/type of requirement:</li> <li>Functional: Fundamental or essential to the product - describes what the product has to do or what processing is needed</li> <li>Nonfunctional: properties the functions must have such as performance, usabil</li></ul></li>	o i i	-
Analyst's assessment of the most appropriate category/type of requirement:   • Functional: Fundamental or essential to the product - describes what the product has to do or what processing is needed  • Nonfunctional: properties the functions must have such as performance, usability, training or documentation  • Project constraint: schedule or budget constraints  • Design constraint: impose restrictions on how the product must be designed, such as conformant to ISO 11179, utilizes 21090 or is able to work on a particular type of device  • Project driver: business-related forces such as descriptions of stakeholders or purpose of the product/project  • Project issue: conditions that will contribute to the success or failure of the project  Link to use case (required)  Business Analyst	Enter appropriate category of primary, direct stakeholder(s):   Software and Application designers and architects Software and Application engineers and developers Scientific and medical researchers Medical research protocol designers Data and metadata managers Clinicians Patients Study participantsBroader Stakeholders:  CaBIG® Community WS, NIH projects, related commercial COTS vendors, Project teams (i.e. caEHR, NHIN), Standards Development Organizations (i.e. HL7, CDISC), International Collaborators (i.e. NCRI, cancerGrid, China), Government and regulatory bodies (i.e. FDA,	-
	<ul> <li>Analyst's assessment of the most appropriate category/type of requirement:</li> <li>Functional: Fundamental or essential to the product - describes what the product has to do or what processing is needed</li> <li>Nonfunctional: properties the functions must have such as performance, usability, training or documentation <ul> <li>Project constraint: schedule or budget constraints</li> <li>Design constraint: impose restrictions on how the product must be designed, such as conformant to ISO 11179, utilizes 21090 or is able to work on a particular type of device</li> <li>Project driver: business-related forces such as descriptions of stakeholders or purpose of the product/project</li> <li>Project issue: conditions that will contribute to the success or failure of the project</li> </ul> </li> <li>Link to use case (required)</li> </ul>
Conflicts / Dependencies(required) — Requirements Analyst/ Business Analyst	Record link to use case(s) Conflicts / Dependencies(required)	_