

Using My Workspace

Access to My Workspace

If you are logged into caNanoLab, My Workspace provides one page where you can manage all of your saved samples, protocols, and publications and any items that were shared with you.

This chapter describes how to use My Workspace. Topics in this chapter include:

- My Workspace
 - My Samples
 - My Protocols
 - My Publications

My Workspace

When you log in and click My Workspace, the system lists all of your saved samples, protocols, and publications on one page, along with all items that were shared with you (in green). You can view, edit, and remove these items from the caNanoLab database.

You can adjust what items are listed on My Workspace with the Samples, Protocols, or Publications boxes at the top of the page.
