Getting Started with Protocol Abstraction v4.4

The NCI CTRP Protocol Abstraction web application enables authorized users to query, access, validate, and abstract trials submitted for registration in the Clinical Trials Reporting Program (CTRP). By abstracting trial data in the application, users ensure data integrity within trials and standardization of data across clinical trials.

This page tree provides instructions for creating CTRP accounts and requesting authorization to abstract trials.

For browser information, refer to Browser Support.