5.1 - Overview of Semantic Infrastructure 2.0 Architecture August 23, 2010

The semantic infrastructure architecture provides an overview of the proposed architecture. The proposed architecture includes a set of core services and tools. Topics covered in the architecture section include an end user's view of the tools and integration with platform and terminology.

The semantic architecture sections provide a comprehensive overview of the solution with mapping to appropriate requirements and use cases.