Sharing Collections with Groups

If you have a MoDaC user account with upload permission, you can make your collections public, or manage which of those groups can view or download your collections, or upload data to them. A subcollection cannot be more public than its parent collection.

Contents