

Excerpt for the Page Created with the Excerpt Data Macro

The excerpt data macro is a special case of the text data macro that allows the user to enter text that is stored as the excerpt for the page. An example follows.

More information

The general form is

An example follows.

The excerpt data macro displays the excerpt. This is the test excerpt.